Foreign Investment Recovery

Jerry S. Goldman is a shareholder in both Anderson Kill's New York and Philadelphia offices. A former prosecutor in Brooklyn, New York, Mr. Goldman has built a highly successful and varied practice serving individuals and closely held businesses throughout the United States.

Mr. Goldman practices in the areas of complex litigation; general business law; white collar criminal defense; estate planning along with estate and trust administration; employment law; federal and international taxation and intellectual property. He is also a member of Anderson Kill's Foreign Investment Recovery Practice group.

He focuses on solving difficult problems by devising creative solutions.

Prior to founding his practice in 1982, Mr. Goldman served as Senior Assistant District Attorney and Senior Supervising Assistant District Attorney in the Kings County District Attorney's Office in Brooklyn, New York. There he gained substantial experience litigating a variety of complex criminal matters and supervising a host of white-collar criminal prosecutions.

Many of Mr. Goldman's engagements have had international law components, ranging from complex litigations involving multi-national parties and claims to transnational business matters.

Mr. Goldman has been mentioned in Who's Who in America, Who's Who in American Lawyers, Who's Who in Entertainment, and the Bar Register of Preeminent Attorneys for both New York and Pennsylvania.

Mr. Goldman is rated "AV® Preeminent™ Peer Review Rated," the top rating, by his peers as listed in Martindale Hubbell.¹

Representative Engagements

One of the most challenging litigation matters he has handled is the assumption of co-lead counsel in a series of lawsuits pertaining to the tragedy of 9/11. He represents the individuals murdered by the attacks on September 11, 2001 involving issues relative to the scope of federal jurisdiction as to foreign defendants, the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, RICO, and the application of the ATA.

Other representations include:

- represented a member of a health care joint venture in the un-winding of the transaction, including litigation regarding use and ownership of trade-secrets, effectiveness of a non-competition agreement, and allocation of financial assets.
- represented a major handgun manufacturer in successfully defending against parallel investigations brought by the Federal Government and various state attorney generals.
- successfully represented a shipper in an anti-trust action against a major overnight parcel carrier.
- represented an ISP in its acquisition by a regional telecommunication carrier.
- represented an elderly mentally ill woman in a series of actions against one of her children leading to the recovery of her assets.
- represented the operator of a web-site which provided access to various video entertainment in various content agreements as well as those with the providers of various infra-structure and marketing services.
- represented a corporation in structuring and securing multi-tiered financing, including state economic development loans, to construct and equip a new domestic manufacturing facility.
- represented senior level executives in negotiating employment agreements.
- represented a start-up internet membership social networking site aimed at air-travelers, including representation pertaining to corporate structuring, various rounds of financings, agreements with software developers, drafting of privacy policy and terms of services, and ultimately the transfer of its assets as part of its next round of financing.
- represented a group of shareholders of a technology company who sought the removal of certain officers and high-level employees (including the President). The dissidents prevailed - the President and another departed, tendered their interests in the corporation (and returned certain assets which they had taken control of or which were in their name, including valuable intellectual property) and entered into non-competes.
- represented shareholders of an international manufacturer in a stock sale, involving both US and foreign entities.
- represented manufacturer in securing various trademark and copyright licenses.
- represented key employee in structuring acquisition of equity interests in a construction firm and related real estate development company.
- represented a family member in a hotly contested guardianship proceeding involving substantial assets.

- represented the founder of a start-up company in executing a successful exit strategy including the sale of the business coupled with equity in the acquirer along with continued consulting work.
